- Cost. Hotel charges are expected to be about six and a half guineas per week.

- Objects. To complete the exploration of and to survey if possible caves known as Cullaun I and Cullaun III
To explore and survey Cullaun Zero.
To locate if possible and to explore and survey Cullaun V.
To discover other caves thought to exist in the area.
To have some sea bathing and to see something of the area as a whole.
- Transport. It is hoped that there will be more than one car available to assist in the transport of students. Seats in one car will be reserved, in the first place, for student members. Members travelling by car would only have to pay fares for the boat. Members not travelling by car would have to pay their own rail and boat fares.
- Names. Those interested are requested to send in their names to the undersigned.
It is realised that not all those wishing to go on this trip will wish to stay the whole period but as accommodation has to be booked a long time ahead it is hoped that those intending to come will send in their names early together with the dates over which they intend to be present and state what transport they have of their own, if any.
The I.A. will give particulars as to the cost of transporting a car or motor-cycle from Fishguard to Rosslare and back. This is the shortest sea route.
