

SPELAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

Sessional Meetings - Spring Term 1961.

- Monday, January 16th. E.M. Jope Esq., F.S.A. "Men & Animals in Early Celtic Art"
- " February 6th Graham A. Webster, Esq., M.A., F.S.A. "The Roman Conquest of the South-West"
- " " 20th Film evening. The following films will be shown:
"Guardians of the Soil"
"Excavations at Viskupin"
"Sondeurs D'Ambines" (commentary in French)
"Faune Cavernicole" (The French underground laboratory. Commentary in English)
- " March 13th ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.
Presidential Address. Dr. E.K. Tratman O.B.E., F.S.A
"The Hydrology of the Burrington Area"

Notice to Members

The 3rd International Spelaeological Congress will be held in Vienna-Obertraun-Salzburg in 1961. There will be pre-congress caving expeditions from Sept. 15th - 17th while the principal congress will be in Vienna from Sept. 18th - 23rd. Thence the congress moves to Obertraun (Upper Austria) from Sept 24th - 26th and moves on to Salzburg from Sept. 26th - 28th. Post-congress excursions from Sept. 26th - Oct. 2nd.

Membership of the conference will cost about £6 (Austrian S.400) for which fee members can attend all functions and receive all publications. For persons accompanying members there is a charge of about half the membership fee. This does not cover board and lodging.

All aspects of caving will be dealt with. Caves to be visited include the Dachstein Caves and Eisreisenwelt.

If you are interested please write at once to:

Generalssekretariat,
3, Internationalen Kongresses fur Specaeologie,
Verband osterreichischer Hohlenforscher,
Wein ii,
Obere Donaustrasse 99/7/3.

This does not commit you to attending the conference but only those who write in now will receive further circulars about the congress.